FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARTIN BENCHER expands in Southern Europe

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP, the Project Logistics Experts, expands in Southern Europe. We have been active in Spain for many years in terms of operations and sales. Therefore, we are proud to announce that MARTIN BENCHER Group is now opening an office in Bilbao, Spain so we can continue serving our project customers.

We have a lot of expectations to make this office successful and we want to keep providing our customers with great quality logistics services – not only to our existing customers but also for the new customers to come.

Managing Director for Martin Bencher Spain is Mr. Rodrigo Jaime, an experienced Project Logistics expert who has been working with Martin Bencher for several years.

"On the personal side, I consider this as a great challenge but with the help of a great number of professional colleagues worldwide, I am confident that we will manage to accomplish our goals of expansion in the Spanish market" says Managing Director, Rodrigo Jaime.
